Visit Day – Friday, April 3, 2020

9:00 – 9:30am (7408 Social Sciences)
Introductions and department tour

9:30 – 12:05pm (7142 Social Sciences)
Faculty members will introduce the major fields of the department. Faculty will also briefly discuss their current research.

12:05 – 1:45pm Lunch (8417 Social Sciences)
Lunch will be provided giving visitors, faculty, and current graduate students an opportunity to meet.

2:00 – 2:30pm (8417 Social Sciences)
Meet with first and second year graduate students. First and second year graduate students will be available to discuss the program, their experiences, and answer questions.

2:30 – 3:45pm (Faculty Offices)
Meet with faculty.
Prospective students will meet individually with faculty members. These meetings usually last for 20 minutes to give faculty the chance to talk with numerous students.

4:00 – 4:30pm (8417 Social Sciences)
Meet with senior graduate students
A panel of senior students will share their perspectives on the graduate program.

4:45pm (Memorial Union)
It is traditional for current students to take the prospective students for an informal social at the Union.

7:00pm (Eno Vino)
Dinner will be hosted at the Eno Vino restaurant for prospective students with faculty and current students.

Optional Activities:
WALKING TOURS. Explore the University of Wisconsin Madison through a guided walking tour. These 100-minute tours of campus are led by experienced tour guides and highlight campus life, academics and the history of the university. They are offered at 3 p.m., Monday through Friday, and at noon, Saturday and Sunday, throughout the year. Tours leave from Union South, 1308 West Dayton Street. (see map). Reservations are recommended and can be made online or by calling 608–263-2400.

SELF-GUIDED TOURS Our campus map features many campus highlights, including key academic buildings, campus landmarks, the residence hall neighborhoods, and several recreational and athletic facilities.

VISITOR CENTERS For housing questions visit any of the Welcome Centers on campus.